Killa Satire

By Mark Goldblatt
Published 4/24/2006 12:05:31 AM

In its February 28 issue, the Second Supper Alternative A satirical student-run journal at the University of Wisconsin (UW-L), published an article titled "Cheney Kills Five Crip: Hunting Accident." The piece poked fun at Vice President after his recent hunting accident, depicting him as a woul member and "stone cold killa." The UW-L Student Associi outraged by the article that it passed a resolution cutting Supper's press run from 2,000 to 60 -- in effect, a deathbl journal depends on outside advertising for its funds.

The resolution was a clear violation of Second Supper's F Amendment right t political satire. Still knee-jerk leftism r campuses nationw

Student Association's decision to punish a gratuitous swi Republican vice president seemed almost courageous.

"Seemed" being the operative word.

It turns out the Student Association had no problem with Supper's potshot (so to speak) at Cheney. What bothered stereotyping of gang members. The resolution condemne "racist, sexist, homophobic, ablest (sic), anti-Semitists (sic the grounds that it would "threaten the recruitment and re students from underrepresented groups." The resolution v by a grammatically-challenged collection of whiners callin "Students Silenced by Privilege."

The Foundation for Individual Rights in Education (FIRE) Second Supper's behalf, petitioning the college administr: demanding that the press run be restored, and the Studer last week relented -- noting, however, that "directly and in students, faculty, and staff have been hurt by the languag publishes."

Sounds like the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse is doir educating the leaders of tomorrow.
