

activities of the institution or its personnel, or which exceeds the bounds of normal internal discipline in its impact, the Board of Trustees may exercise its right to name a Special Hearing Board, Committee, or Officer to investigate the questioned action and to initiate appropriate disciplinary or other measures.

5.19. Misuse of Telephones and/or other Communication Technology: No student shall misuse or abuse, or assist in the misuse or abuse of communication equipment at the University. Such activity includes, but is not limited to, using any form of communication equipment to harass or threaten any person or persons, or using any form of communication equipment to disrupt the normal operations or activities of any person, organization, or the University. Communication equipment includes, but is not limited to, electronic mail, pagers, voice mail, computers, printers, etc.

5.20. Alcohol Policies: Students and student organizations must comply with the published regulations, and any and all applicable laws, concerning the transport, display, provision, possession and consumption of beer, wine, and other alcoholic beverages. A complete outline of these regulations is available in the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs. Common containers of beer or wine (kegs, party balls, etc.) are not permitted at student organization functions or by any individual students at any time in a residence hall. Beverages must be used in individual containers. Violating any other provision of the Student Code of Conduct while under the influence of alcohol is a violation of this Alcohol Policy. Such conduct includes, but is not limited to, public intoxication.

5.21. Drug Policies: The unauthorized possession, use, manufacture, sale, or distribution of any counterfeit, illegal, dangerous, "designer," or controlled drug or other substance is prohibited. This includes prescription medications. Violating any other provision of the Student Code of Conduct while under the influence of any illegal or illegally obtained drug is also a violation of this policy (Refer to the University Drug Policy). The possession of drug paraphernalia is also prohibited (i.e., pipes, bong, blunts). Any dilute, late, missed, forged, or failed university required drug screen will constitute a violation of this policy.

5.22. Failure to comply with University Policies and Procedures: Failure to abide by any published University policy or procedure is prohibited.

5.23. Sexual Assault: Committing or attempting to commit an act of sexual assault as defined by the University Sexual Assault Policy is prohibited.

5.24. Computer Misuse: In addition to adhering to the University's "Computer Network and Access Policy" (ACAF 7.01), misusing University computing resources by intentionally making, receiving, accessing, altering, using, providing or in any way tampering with files, discs, programs, passwords, messages or other computer users without their permission is prohibited. Using computer resources to harass others or in ways that violate institutional computer use policies is prohibited.

5.25. Harassment: Conduct that creates or attempts to create an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment for another person. Such conduct includes, but is not limited to, action(s) or statement(s) that threaten harm or intimidate a person, stalking, voyeurism (or peeping) or any other form of unwanted contact.

5.26. Voyeurism: Voyeurism is defined as viewing, photographing, audio recording, video recording, producing, or creating a digital electronic file or filming another person without that person's knowledge and consent, while the person is in a place where he or
