HARASSMENT AND HATE INCIDENTS

Colorado State University reaffirms its intention to create and maintain a work and study environment for faculty, staff, and students that is fair, humane, and responsible, an environment that supports, nurtures, and rewards people on the basis of such relevant conditions as ability, performance, dedication, and diligence.

The Student Code of Conduct prohibits the harassment of any member of the University community, meaning verbal or physical harassment, on the basis of gender, race, color, national origin, sexual orientation, age, religion, or physical disability. The Code also prohibits abusive conduct, including physical abuse, verbal abuse, threats, intimidation, stalking, coercion, and/or other conduct which threatens or endangers the physical or psychological health, safety, or welfare of one's self, another individual, or a group of individuals. Students should refer to the General Catalog and/or the webpage of the CSU Office of Equal Opportunity and Diversity (OEOD) for more information about the University's sexual harassment policy and other harassment policies, and the procedures for bringing a complaint. The University encourages anyone who may experience harassment to report such incidents to the OEOD or other University administrators.

PETS

- Residents are permitted to have fish in their rooms. Residents having pets other than fish in their rooms may face disciplinary action and be charged for damages or cleaning.
- Students are permitted to have aquariums providing the aquarium is stocked with fish only. Aquariums must be no larger than 25 gallons.
- Snakes, turtles, salamanders, newts, frogs, and rodents are specifically prohibited.
