COMMUNITY LIVING STANDARDS

Residence Hall Policies

for Residence Hall Communities

3.0 - Physical/Psychological

You have the responsibility to respect the rights of all others in the residence hall community, and to act with civility at all times. Fighting, threats, and intimidation of any person for any reason will not be tolerated.

3.01 Refusal to comply with any lawful order or reasonable request of a clearly identifiable university official acting in the performance of his or her duties in the enforcement of university policy is prohibited.

3.02 Failure to present UNC One Card when requested to do so by a university official is prohibited.

3.03 Furnishing false information to a university official with intent to deceive; withholding, with knowledge, information from the university is prohibited.

3.04 Violation of a university policy, town ordinance, or state or federal law is also a violation of your housing contract.

3.05 Intimidation of any person including verbal, non-verbal, and written communication is prohibited.

3.06 Use of discriminatory language with intent to harm or incite is prohibited.

3.07 Threats of violence to self or any other person, regardless of reason is prohibited.

3.08 Intimidation or harassment of any person, regardless of reason is prohibited.

3.09 Fighting with any other person, regardless of reason is prohibited.

3.10 Stalking or following another person is prohibited.

3.11 Sexual invasion or assault is prohibited.

3.12 Endangering, injuring, or assaulting a staff member under circumstances related to the staff member's job function is prohibited.

3.13 Possession or use of any weapon, firearm, fireworks, ammunition, or other explosive material, including but not limited to firecrackers, bows and arrows, BB guns, paintball guns, knives, and martial arts equipment is prohibited.
