

University Policies

University Policies › Safety and Security › Disorderly Conduct

Disorderly Conduct

POLICY TITLE:	Carnegie Mellon University Policy on Disorderly Conduct
DATE OF ISSUANCE:	The most recently revised version of this Policy was approved by the President's Council on May 3, 1999. This Policy appears in the Student Handbook.
ACCOUNTABLE DEPARTMENT:	Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs. Questions on Policy content should be directed to the vice president and dean, Office of Student Affairs, 412-268-2075 .
ABSTRACT:	Disorderly conduct constitutes a basis for university disciplinary action.

Policy Statement

Disorderly conduct is ordinarily defined as the use of abusive or obscene language or gestures to/by a member of the campus community, publicly intoxicated behavior or persistence, after a request to desist, in behavior which inconveniences or impedes other members of the campus community in their proper use of or passage through the campus area. It constitutes a basis for university disciplinary action and may result in the issuance of commonwealth citations or criminal action.

- Articles of Incorporation
- Bylaws of the University
- Site Map

Carnegie Mellon University
5000 Forbes Avenue
Pittsburgh, PA 15213