Harassment

There are several policies at JMU that deal with harassment based on protected classes. Sexual harassment is defined and addressed by

JMU Policy 1340

and

Sexual Misconduct

or

Policy 1346

and

Title IX Sexual Harassment

. Harassment on the basis of other protected classes is defined and addressed by

Policy 1324

Harassment that is not on the basis of a protected class is addressed by this policy, and is defined as unwelcome or offensive physical, verbal, or non-verbal conduct that creates a hostile environment

A hostile environment may be created by unwelcome or offensive oral, written, graphic or physical conduct that is sufficiently severe, persistent, or pervasive and objectively offensive in a manner that interferes with, limits or denies the person the ability to participate in or benefit from the institution's educational programs, services, opportunities, or activities or the individual's employment access, benefits or opportunities. Mere subjective offensiveness is not enough to create a hostile environment. In determining whether conduct is severe, persistent, or pervasive, and objectively offensive, and creates a hostile environment, the following factors will be considered: (a) the degree to which the conduct affected one or more individuals' education or employment; (b) the nature, scope, frequency, duration, and location of the incident(s); (c) the identity, number, and relationships of persons involved; (d) the perspective of a "reasonable person" in the same situation as the person subjected to the conduct, and (e) the nature of higher education.

Conduct is considered "unwelcome conduct" if the individual subjected to the conduct did not request consent to, or invite it and reasonably considers the conduct to be undesirable or harmful.

This policy does not prohibit exercising rights protected under the First Amendment.

The university prohibits hazing, including recklessly or intentionally endangering the health or safety of a student or students; inflicting bodily injury on a student or students; any activity or behavior that creates emotional distress, physical discomfort, embarrassment, shame, harassment, malicious amusement, or ridicule in connection with or the purpose of initiation, admission into, or affiliation with or as a condition for continued membership in a club, organization, or association, fraternity, sorority, or student body, regardless of whether the student or students so endangered, injured, or affected participates voluntarily in the relevant activity. Students directing, engaging in, aiding, or participating actively or passively, the forcing, compelling, requiring, encouraging, or expecting, whether direct or implied, of individuals to participate in hazing activities shall be considered in violation of this policy.

It is impossible to anticipate every situation that could involve hazing. Behavior listed below does not and cannot encompass every circumstance that can be categorized as hazing, but this policy does prohibit some circumstances beyond those outlined by the State Council on Higher Education in Virginia's model hazing policy. Further, this policy is not intended to prohibit customary athletic events, contests, competitions, or trainings that are sponsored by the University, the organized and supervised practices associated with such events, or activity or conduct that furthers the goals of a legitimate curriculum or program as approved by the University.

Hazing activities shall include, but not be limited to, forcing, compelling, requiring, encouraging, or expecting, whether direct or implied, any individual to participate in any of the following actions or activities: paddling; kidnapping; all forms of physical activity which are used to harass, punish, or threaten an individual; excursions or road trips; confinement; spraying, painting, or pelting with any substance; burying in any substance; nudity with the intent to cause embarrassment; servitude; exposure to uncomfortable elements; verbal abuse; wearing, in public, of apparel which is conspicuous and/or indecent; forcing consumption of alcohol or any other substance, legal or illegal; depriving student sufficient sleep (six consecutive hours per day is normally considered to be a minimum); burning, branding, or tattooing any part of the body; psychological hazing, defined as any act which is likely to (a) Compromise an individual's dignity; (b) Cause an individual embarrassment or shame; (c) Cause an individual to be the object of malicious amusement or ridicule; or (d) Cause an individual emotional distress; interrogating an individual in an intimidating or threatening manner; misleading prospective members in an effort to convince them that they will not become members unless they complete tasks; following instructions, or act in a certain way; misleading prospective members into believing that they will be hurt during induction or initiation; carrying any items (shields, paddles, bricks, hammers, etc.) that do not serve no constructive purpose or that are designed to punish or embarrass the carrier; blindfolding and parading individuals in public areas, blindfolding and transporting in a motor vehicle, or privately conducting blindfolding activities that serve no constructive purpose; binding or restricting an individual in any way that would prohibit them from moving on their own; and requiring or suggesting that an individual obtain or possess items or complete tasks in an unlawful manner (i.e. for a scavenger hunt). Hazing also includes soliciting, directing, aiding, or otherwise participating actively or passively in any of the above acts.

An individual cannot consent to being hazed; a victim's voluntary or willful participation in hazing activities will not be considered evidence that a violation of this policy did not occur.

Section 18.2-56 of the Code of Virginia declares hazing illegal, establishes conditions for civil and criminal liability, and outlines the duties university when a student has been found guilty of hazing in civil or criminal court.

Interference or Retaliation in a University Process

Sexual misconduct encompasses sexual assault, sexual violence, sexual harassment, sexual exploitation, stalking, dating violence, domestic violence, and non-consensual relationships. Sexual Misconduct can involve persons of the same or different sex, sexual orientation, gender, or gender identity.

All acts of Sexual Misconduct are covered by the terms of this policy, provided that the Reporting Party reasonably believes they have been subjected to sexual misconduct by a current student, as defined in the Student Handbook, the behavior is not covered by

JMU Policy 1346

, any limitations set forth by JMU

Policy 1340

If there is evidence included in the Investigative Report, which may include the Reporting Party's and Responding Party's final statements if provided, regarding the personal consumption of drugs or alcohol, where such disclosure is made in conjunction with a good faith report made to the Title IX Office by the Reporting Party, a Reporting Party Witness, or a Responding Party Witness, OSARP will not initiate the Accountability Process and pursue alleged violations of these policies against these parties. Reporting Parties and Responding Parties should review JMU Policy 1340 for their roles in the investigation of an allegation and the OSARP Sexual Misconduct Accountability Process for their roles in the adjudication of an allegation. Both parties will be assigned a Guide in OSARP to explain the Sexual Misconduct Accountability Process.

The following behavior is prohibited at JMU:

Sexual Assault:

A sexual act committed against another person without consent. For purposes of this policy, sexual assault includes any of the following offenses:

For the purposes of this policy, sexual assault also includes any nonconsensual physical contact of a sexual nature that is forced on another person, including unwelcome sexual touching of any kind. This includes engaging, attempting to engage, or completing any kissing; intentional touching of another person's body part in a sexual manner, directly or through clothing; or forcing a person to touch oneself or another person's body part in a sexual manner, directly or through clothing.

Examples include but are not limited to, prostituting another person; causing or attempting to cause the incapacitation of another person for a sexual purpose; recording, photographing, creating, or transmitting sexual utterances, sounds, or images, whether real or fake, of another person without that person's consent; allowing a Third Party to observe sexual activity without the consent of participants; knowingly transmitting sexually transmitted infections or other diseases without the knowledge of the person's sexual partner; inducing another to expose his/her body for sexual purposes; intentionally altering, removing, or sabotaging contraceptive or prophylactic measures without the knowledge of the other party, including but not limited to condoms and/or birth control measures; and viewing another person's sexual activity, intimate body parts, or nakedness in a place where that person would have a reasonable expectation of privacy without that person's consent.

Sexual Harassment:

Conduct consisting of unwelcome or offensive sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other conduct of a sexual nature that can be verbal (e.g., specific demands for sexual favors, sexually suggestive comments, sexual propositions, or sexual threats); non-verbal (e.g., sexual suggestive emails or other writings; objects or pictures; suggestive, obscene or insulting sounds or gestures); or physical (e.g., unwanted touching or other physical contact; or any unwelcome or coerced sexual activity), and that meets at least one of the following definitions:

Term or condition of employment or education ("quid pro quo"). This type of sexual harassment occurs when the terms or conditions of employment, educational benefits, academic grades or opportunities, living environment, or participation in a university activity are conditioned upon, either explicitly or implicitly, submission to or rejection of unwelcome sexual advances or requests for sexual activities, or such submission or rejection is a factor in decisions affecting that individual's employment, education, living environment, or participation in a university education program or activity.

Hostile environment. Acts of sexual harassment that create a hostile environment, as defined here: A hostile environment may be created by oral, written, graphic, or physical conduct that is sufficiently severe, persistent, or pervasive, and objectively offensive in a manner that interferes with, limits, or denies the person the ability to participate in or benefit from the institution's education programs or activities, including employment access, benefits or opportunities. Mere subjective offensiveness is not enough to create a hostile environment. In determining whether conduct is severe, persistent, or pervasive, and objectively offensive, and thus creates a hostile environment, the following factors will be considered: (a) the degree to which the conduct affected one or more individuals' education or employment; (b) the nature, scope, frequency, duration, and location of the incident(s); (c) the identity, number, and relationships of persons involved; (d) the perspective of a "reasonable person" in the same situation as the person subjected to the conduct; and (e) the nature of higher education.

Dating Violence:

A form of sexual violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with another person, where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:

The length of the relationship.

The type of relationship.

The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

Domestic Violence:

Crimes of violence committed by any of the following:

A current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim

A person with whom the victim shares a child in common

A person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner

A person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia

Any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia

Stalking:

Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for their safety or the safety of others, or suffer substantial emotional distress.

Non-Consensual Relationship:

A sexual relationship between members of the university community is prohibited if it is influenced by any form of fear or coercion, such that it causes one party to believe that they must submit unwelcome sexual conduct in order to accept or continue employment, achieve an employment or educational benefit, or participate in a program or activity. A sexual relationship is prohibited between individuals where a power differential would imply or raise the inference of exploitation or raise the inference that an educational or employment decision will be based on whether or not there is submission to coerced sexual conduct.

In adjudicating allegations of violating Sexual Misconduct the following definitions will be applied:

Consent:

An outward demonstration through understandable words or actions that convey a knowing and voluntary agreement to engage in mutually agreed upon sexual activity. Consent cannot be obtained by physical or verbal coercion that is express or implied, which includes the use of intimidation, threats, force, or duress. Consent cannot be obtained by ignoring or acting in spite of the objection of another, by previous consent, or by taking advantage of another person's incapacitation or physical helplessness where a person knows or a reasonable person should have known of such incapacitation or helplessness. An individual who is incapacitated because of age, disability, voluntary activity, or through the acts of others cannot give consent. Silence or absence of resistance does not imply consent. Consent is voluntary and may be withdrawn at any time by communicating the withdrawal through an outward demonstration of understandable words or actions.

Incapacitation:

Physical or mental inability to make informed, rational judgments. States of incapacitation include, without limitation, sleep, blackouts, unconsciousness, and the inability to make such decisions due to the voluntary or involuntary use of alcohol or drugs. Incapacitation may occur because of age, disability, voluntary activity, or through the acts of others.

Sexual Violence:

Physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person's will or where a person is incapable of giving consent (e.g., due to the person's age, mental state, use of drugs or alcohol, or because an intellectual or other disability prevents the person from having the capacity to give consent).

Smoking, Vaping, Tobacco, and/or Nicotine

The possession of any kind of lighted smoking equipment, or device; or the lighting, inhaling, or exhaling of smoke or vapor from a pipe, cigar, cigarette, e-cigarette or any other smoking device of any kind in university buildings, residence hall courtyards, or other areas outlined in

is prohibited.

No person shall sell to, distribute to, purchase for, or knowingly permit the purchase by any person less than 21 years of age, knowing or having reason to believe that such person is less than 21 years of age, any tobacco product, nicotine vapor product, or alternative nicotine product, unless the direct recipient of the tobacco product, nicotine vapor product, or alternative nicotine product is an active duty military personnel over the age of 18.

The demonstration or promotion shall be such that it does not unreasonably disrupt other hall activities.

Complainants and Respondents should review JMU Policy 1346 for their roles in the investigation of a formal complaint and the Title IX Sexual Harassment Adjudication Process for their roles in the adjudication of a formal complaint. Both parties will be assigned an OSARP Guide to help them understand the Title IX Sexual Harassment Adjudication Process.
