

- 14. Student Code of Conduct (“Code”): The University policy that sets forth standards of conduct and processes for addressing reported violations of those standards.
- 15. Student Organizations and Groups: Student groups that have achieved the status of a recognized student organization, or are organizing to apply for recognition, through Bucknell Student Government and Campus Activities, and student groups sponsored by University departments.

E. COMMUNITY CONDUCT EXPECTATIONS AND PROHIBITED CONDUCT (“MISCONDUCT”)

Students, Student Organizations and Student Groups may receive action for engaging or attempting to engage in conduct prohibited by the Code as described below and referred to throughout this Code as “Misconduct”. The list is not all inclusive but is illustrative of conduct that may fall below University expectations and may expose a Student, Student Organization or Student Group to disciplinary action and possible outcomes.

1. Failure to act in a manner that reflects personal and intellectual honesty.
 - a. Providing, possessing or using false information, including furnishing false information to any University official, law enforcement officer or emergency response/medical personnel, faculty member, department or office; forging, altering or misusing any University document, record or instrument of identification; or assuming the name of a University official, faculty member or another student.
 - b. Knowingly being in the presence of violations of the University Code of Conduct, University policies or law.
2. Failure to act in a manner that reflects maturity, social responsibility and respect toward the person and property of others.
 - a. Engaging in conduct that threatens the health or well-being of another.
 - b. Intentionally or recklessly causing physical harm or abuse, injury, constraint on another’s physical movement or threat of harm toward another person.
 - c. Harassment, which includes engaging in conduct that, in the view of a reasonable person, has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating or hostile educational, work or living environment.
 - d. Bullying and cyberbullying, which generally involves an imbalance of power, with an intent to intimidate, threaten and/or cause emotional and/or physical harm. Cyberbullying may encompass any form of technology.
 - e. Hazing, as defined by the University’s Antihazing policy.
 - f. Violation of local, state, or federal law, or campus policies, related to fires and fire hazards including, but not limited to:
 - i. Intentionally or recklessly causing a fire which causes injury or damages any University, personal or public property.
 - ii. Failure to evacuate a University-controlled building during a fire alarm.
 - iii. Tampering with, covering, disabling, or otherwise damaging fire safety equipment, including fire alarms, door stoppers, smoke detectors, and fire extinguishers, and hanging items from sprinkler heads.
 - iv. Improper use of, or blocking of, emergency exits, fire escapes, rooftops, windows, hallways and other means of ingress/egress.
 - v. Disorderly conduct, including any behavior that obstructs or disrupts the regular or normal functions of the University or surrounding community, breaches the peace or violates the rights of others. Specific misconduct includes but is not limited to:
 1. Excessive noise.
 2. Lewd or indecent conduct.