

8. Unauthorized Use or Possession of Chemicals or Explosives: Unauthorized use or possession of explosive components, chemicals, etc., such as fireworks, explosives, gas, or compressed air.

9. Violation of UMS or Institution Alcohol, Drug, or Tobacco and Smoke Free Policies.

10. Violation of UMS or Institution Weapons Policies.

D. Offenses Involving Other People

1. Assault: Intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing bodily injury or offensive physical contact to another person.

2. Causing Fear of Physical Harm: Intentionally or knowingly placing another person in fear of imminent bodily injury.

3. Dating Violence: Violence committed against a person by an individual who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with that person. Whether a dating relationship exists is determined based on the Reporting Party's statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. Dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse. Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence. All forms of dating violence prohibited by applicable law are also included (for example, Assault).

4. Discrimination: Discrimination based on actual or perceived race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, national origin, citizenship status, age, disability, genetic information, or veterans status.

5. Domestic Violence: A felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed by:

- a. A current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim; or
- b. A person with whom the victim shares a child in common; or
- c. A person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the victim as a spouse or intimate partner; or
- d. A person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred; or
- e. By any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.

All forms of domestic violence prohibited by applicable law are also included (for example, Domestic Violence Assault, Domestic Violence Criminal Threatening, Domestic Violence Terrorizing, Domestic Violence Stalking, and Domestic Violence Reckless Conduct).

6. Gender Discrimination: Discriminating against an individual on the basis of that individual's sex, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression.
7. Harassment: Severe or pervasive unwelcome conduct, including but not limited to: comments; jokes; acts; other verbal or physical conduct or bullying, that may be based on race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy), sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, national origin, citizenship status, age, disability, genetic information, or veterans status.
8. Hazing: Any action or situation, including harassing behavior, that recklessly or intentionally endangers the mental or physical health of any University employee or a person, student, or student organization or any activity expected of a person, student, or student organization as a condition of joining or maintaining membership in a group that humiliates, degrades, abuses or endangers the student, regardless of the student's willingness to participate in the activity.
9. Interference with Residential Life.
10. Intimidation: The improper use of authority, coercion, or threat for the purpose of compelling or deterring action against that person's will. Intimidation violates this Code when it threatens substantial harm to the other person's membership or status in the community; personal, professional, or academic reputation or opportunities; extracurricular opportunities; or financial security. Intimidation may include, but is not limited to, threatening to accuse someone of illegal activity; threatening to expose a secret that could subject the person to hatred, contempt, or ridicule or otherwise compromise that person's standing in the community; threatening to disseminate sexual images of the other person; or use of a position of authority to take or withhold action against the other person.
11. Invasion of Privacy: The violation of another individual's reasonable expectation of privacy where the circumstances justify that expectation.
12. Indecent Conduct: Exhibition, including by electronic means, of the genitals, anus, or pubic area of a person other than for legitimate academic purposes. Simulation of a sexual act, sex act in public with or without private parts showing, or public masturbation are also included.
13. Retaliation: Action taken by an individual(s) or group or organization against any person or group for any action taken in furtherance of this Code including but not limited to: filing a complaint, testifying, assisting, or participating in an investigation or proceeding under this Code.
14. Sexual Assault: An offense that meets the definition of rape, fondling, incest, or statutory rape, as follows:
 - a. Rape is the penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by
