

REPORT CONCERNS

Boise State strives to create a safe and productive learning and working environment. At times, concerns arise and it can be difficult to know who and how to share this information. Below are options for reporting a variety of concerns.

The listed resources are not intended to address or respond to emergency situations. If your concern is an emergency, contact 911.

Reporting Forms

Open Reporting

Faculty Reporting

Student Behavioral Misconduct

Open reporting option

When the conduct of students or student organizations as defined by University policy #2020 significantly interferes with the educational objectives of Boise State and its members, the university may take disciplinary action.

Learn more about student behavioral misconduct

Report Student Behavioral Misconduct

Discrimination and Harassment

Open reporting option

Unfair treatment, abusive words or expressions, or intimidating or threatening behavior aimed at any member of the campus community based on a protected class (e.g., religion, race, national origin) as defined in University Policy #1060 should be reported to the Office of Institutional Compliance.

To learn more about Title VI

Report Discrimination and Harassment

If you want to file any report anonymously, you can do so through Boise State's third-party run reporting hotline and website submission system:

Sexual Misconduct, Sexual Harassment, Stalking and Abuse in a Relationship

Open reporting option

Violations of University Policy #1065 include abuse within an intimate or dating relationship; stalking; sexual behavior that is unwanted, not consensual, or intended to harm; or any other discrimination on the basis of sex, gender or sexual orientation or identity. Any behavior that may violate this policy should be reported to the Title IX Coordinator.

Learn more about Title IX

Report Gender Based Discrimination and Harassment

Concern for Health, Safety, and Wellbeing

Open reporting option | Anonymous reporting option | Self reporting option

Sometimes, concerns for an individual goes beyond normal signs of distress. If your concern for a student, faculty or staff member includes behaviors that may pose a threat to themselves or others, consider submitting a CARE Alert. CARE is comprised of representatives from various departments across campus who are trained to assess and respond to more concerning situations.

Learn more about CARE

File a CARE Report

Report a Crime, Suspicious Circumstances, or Security Issue

Open reporting option | Anonymous reporting option

If you are aware of or witnessed a possible crime that could have an impact on campus or the campus community, submit a report to Public Safety.

Learn more about Public Safety and Security

To report in person

: Call

(208) 426-6911

or go to the substation at

2245 University Drive

Report Crimes or Safety Concerns Anonymously

Student Academic Concern

Faculty reporting option

If a student is experiencing academic difficulties, including missing assignments, poor attendance, or needs tutoring, the faculty can submit an academic alert. Following a referral, an Academic Development and Recovery Advisor in the Advising and Academic Support Center will reach out to the student.

Learn more about this Student Academic Concerns

Report a Student Academic Concern

Student Academic Misconduct

Faculty reporting option

Academic Misconduct can be intentional or unintentional and includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, unauthorized collaboration, fabrication, and research misconduct. Academic Misconduct is prohibited at Boise State University and faculty are encouraged to report incidents. Please review the Step by Step Guide to Addressing Academic Misconduct before submitting an Academic Misconduct Report.

Learn more about Academic Misconduct

Report an Academic Misconduct

Classroom Disruption

Faculty reporting option

Behavior in the classroom, department, faculty offices, or through communications (such as email) that interferes with normal academic functions is considered disruptive and there are options for addressing these concerns.

Learn more about Classroom Disruption

Report Classroom Disruption