

Sample interview questions:

How did you hear about Student Defenders, and why are you interested in becoming a representative?

Why do you care about campus due process rights?

Sometimes you may have a case where a student did or said something that you may disagree with or even find incredibly offensive. How would you handle a situation where you had to defend the due process rights of someone you didn't agree with?

How might you go about spreading awareness of Student Defenders on campus?

What systems and strategies do you use to keep track of multiple deadlines, projects, and tasks? How have you exhibited the ability to produce thorough, error-free, high quality work, yet still meet high-pressure deadlines?

What are your strengths in terms of personality and work that you would bring to our group?

What is one area you need to work on to become more effective on a day to day basis? How do you plan on improving upon this?

Have you ever had a situation where you had to implement or accept direction you didn't necessarily agree with? How did you handle it?

Describe the most difficult issue you have faced in your previous work or academic experiences and tell me how you handled it.

What do you want to accomplish during your time as a Student Defenders representative?
