

Complaint Exhibit A

Masses Publishing Co. v. Patten

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

-----X
THE MASSES PUBLISHING COMPANY,
Complainant, E 14-225

-against-

T. G. PATTEN, POST MASTER OF
THE CITY OF NEW YORK,
Defendant.
-----X

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED that complainant's exhibit, A, being the August, 1917, issue of the publication "The Masses" contained in complainant's bill of complaint; and defendant's exhibits, contained in defendant's opposing affidavits to preliminary injunction, as follows:

The June, 1917, issue of the publication "The Masses";

The July, 1917, issue of the publication "The Masses";

The June, 1917, issue of the publication "Mother Earth";

need not be printed in the record on appeal, but may be produced and referred to on the argument of this appeal with the same force and effect as if same were printed in the said record, provided that three copies of each of the said exhibits be handed to the Court.

Nothing contained in the foregoing stipulation shall be construed as a waiver of the objection taken by solicitor for complainant on the argument below to the consideration of the June and July issues of "The Masses" and the June issue of "Mother Earth"
Gilbert E. Ray
