Incident and Complaint Reporting

The University of Michigan-Dearborn is committed to providing a safe, inclusive, welcoming and responsive environment for all students, faculty, staff and visitors on campus. The university has one central area to report incidents of discrimination, harassment, hate, bias, sexual assault, instances of concern, safety and campus community wellbeing, student conduct issues and grade grievances. Reporting crimes directly to the police department is encouraged. Calls to the police department are handled immediately.

If this is an emergency, immediately dial 9-1-1.
