Dear Mr. Steinbaugh:

Thank you for bringing the prior resolution to my attention; I was previously unaware of the history. Please note that the contact from Ms. Pollard was an inquiry, not a cease and desist request.

We note that the website has been significantly modified from 2009 and now appears to utilize the UCLA domain colors, images and design, which it had not previously done. Also, the prior matter was resolved with the understanding that a disclaimer was prevalent on the website to assure that there was no likelihood of confusion with official UCLA websites. That disclaimer has been removed. We believe these issues can be avoided long term if Mr. Wilde's website design does not try to mimic an official UCLA website or a prominent disclaimer is reestablished to further prevent any such confusion.

Sincerely,
