Intimidation
Intimidation is to unlawfully place another person in reasonable fear of bodily harm through the use of threatening words and/or other conduct, but without displaying a weapon or subjecting the victim to actual physical attack.

To be the victim of intimidation, you don’t have to be the intended target of the offender. For example, a person who reports seeing anti-gay threats on a bathroom wall is considered a victim. Intimidation also includes cyber intimidation if the victim is threatened via computer.

Weapons
The University of New Mexico is a weapon-free campus. Use, possession or storage of any weapon on University premises or at University-sponsored activities, unless expressly authorized in writing by the President, is prohibited. Weapon includes, but is not limited to, firearms, ammunition, bombs, explosives, incendiary devices, or other dangerous weapons, substances or materials. For a full understanding of UNM’s weapons policy, please visit policy.unm.edu.

Vandalism/Destruction/Damage
Vandalism/Destruction/Damage of property is to willfully or maliciously destroy, damage, deface, or otherwise injure real or personal property without the consent of the owner or the person having custody or control of it.
