The rules and regulations of this handbook are for the purpose of providing an environment that is conducive with the educational mission of Northwestern Oklahoma State University.

RESPECT

In a community where people are courteous, kind, and interested in one another a sense of pride and positivity builds naturally. Always respect the rights of others.

SPEAK UP & REPORT ISSUES

When something needs doing or improving, speak to your RA, Hall Supervisor, or reach out to housing.nwsu.edu. Do not wait for someone else to do it.

If something is not working properly, report it. Help your residence hall be the best I can be. Report all maintenance requests/concerns to your Hall Supervisor.

When something needs doing or improving, speak to your RA, Hall Supervisor, or reach out to housing@nwsu.edu. Do not wait for someone else to do it.

GENERAL INFORMATION

LIVING IN A COMMUNITY

NWOSU Housing strives to provide a pleasant and safe community for all students. Each member of the Ranger community has a responsibility to be courteous and observe basic personal safety practices. Students who feel uncomfortable or unsafe should make those concerns known to the Dean of Student Affairs, Calleb Mosburg, at cnmosburg@nwosu.edu or Director of Students and Housing, Matt Adair, at wmadair@nwosu.edu. All conversations are confidential.

COMMITMENT TO DIVERSITY

The Ranger community is composed of various cultural and ethnic groups. Students living in the residence halls have an opportunity to interact with a variety of people different from themselves. Housing and Residence life are committed to promote cultural esteem among all races, religions, national origins, and ages; and to encourage respect for different abilities, sexual orientations and genders. Students are, thereby, expected to demonstrate consideration for other students and their values at all times.

PRIVACY & STAFF

RIGHTS OF PRIVACY

As a student you have the same rights of privacy as other citizens in their homes.

Entry into your room is authorized only:

- ◆ By your permission
- ◆ By your roommate's permission
- ◆ For repairs, room inspections, or maintenance after reasonable notice has been given or you requested the service.
- ◆ To turn off unattended loud music or TV, persistently sounding alarm clocks or phones, or other noise-producing devices, after unsuccessfully attempting to contact you or your roommate.
- ◆ During fire drills or security alarms
- ◆ During emergencies where danger to life, safety, health, or property is reasonably feared.
- ◆ Upon authority of a search warrant issued by a University official pursuant to the Student Code of Conduct or by a court of competent jurisdiction.
- ◆ For closing inspections during all move-out periods.

STAFF

NWOSU Housing areas are staffed by a variety of professional staff members and student employees to ensure residents' safety and security, as well as to address the needs of each community. They also sponsor and organize social, educational, and cultural programs and participate in community service activities.

Hall Supervisors are full-time staff who supervise residence halls and oversee various areas of the residence hall community. Hall Supervisors are responsible for all operations and supervision of their halls, conduct meetings with residents for disciplinary issues, supervising student staff, and day to day operations of their halls.

Resident Assistants (RAs) are carefully selected and trained student leaders who live in the communities. They work to develop a friendly atmosphere, cooperation, mutual respect in the corridor, and an environment conducive to academic success. RAs provide students with information or refer them to appropriate resources, help with personal problems and concerns, and assist residents in other ways so that all benefit from the University and group living experience. Your Resident Advisor will work to establish a relationship with you and will work to check in with you about your experience here at the University of Oklahoma. They are your best and the first resource for getting plugged into

RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES

ROOMMATE BILL OF RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES

Sharing a room with someone is like any other relationship — to be successful it requires openness, flexibility, respect, and compromise. Right from the beginning, it is very important to communicate openly with your roommate. Learning to live with another person, to acknowledge and respect each other's differences, and to allow one another the space to grow is one of the most valuable parts of the residence hall experience at NWOSU. The following declaration outlines basic rights and responsibilities that will help healthy roommate relationships develop.

As a roommate, YOU have the following RIGHTS

- ◆ To read and study free from undue interference in one's room.
- ◆ To sleep without undue disturbance from noise, roommate, guests, etc.
- ◆ To a safe and clean environment in which to live.
- ◆ To free access to your room and facilities without pressure from a roommate.
- ◆ To personal privacy
- ◆ To host guests during approved visitation hours who respect the rights of your roommate and other hall residents.
- ◆ To be free from fear of intimidation and physical and/or emotional harm.
- ◆ To expect reasonable cooperation in the use of shared appliances (refrigerators, etc.) and a commitment to honor agreed-upon procedures.

As a roommate, YOU have the following RESPONSIBILITIES

- ◆ To keep your room and/or suite locked and secure when not in use.
- ◆ To observe quiet hours, keep your music, TV, etc., and voice at a reasonable volume and remind others that you expect the same of them.
- ◆ To let your roommate know of your wishes and preferences for hours of sleep, study, and guest visitation and to work through any differences you may have in a peaceful manner.
- ◆ To read and follow the rules and regulations established to support the educational purposes of the University and to sustain a safe and comfortable residence community.
- ◆ To examine your own behavior when confronted by another and work toward resolving conflicts. You also have the responsibility to interact with others and not be threatening or aggressive.
- ◆ To participate in community and hall meetings and to adhere to and enforce community policies and guidelines.
- ◆ To be a positive member and influence in your community.
- ◆ To recognize that community cannot exist if any individual is excluded; any action, direct or covert, that discriminates on the basis of race, gender, religion, handicap, national origin, age, or sexual orientation or identity cannot be tolerated in a community based on mutual respect and cooperation.

CHECK-IN & ROOM CHANGES

CHECK-IN

The official move-in day is the Thursday before each semester. Students will need to report to the front desk of their assigned residence hall. If no one is available at the front desk phone numbers will be posted to contact your Hall Supervisor or a Resident Assistant (RA).

A residence hall staff member will perform a walkthrough the room and suite with the student and fill out a check-in sheet. The check-in sheet records any pre-existing damages or missing residence hall property upon move in. This sheet will be used again once the room is vacated. Any new damages or missing residence hall property during a student's occupancy of the space will be considered the student's responsibility. Once the walkthrough is complete the student will receive their dorm key.

In order to be assigned a room you must complete a housing contract, meningococcal form, and pay the $200.00 deposit. No student will receive an assignment or key until both deposit and application are received.

ROOM CHANGES

To change rooms or halls, a student must contact their Hall Supervisor. Room and hall changes will be based on availability and space. Once the room change is approved by the Hall Supervisor who submits the change to the Housing Office, the student will be notified and will perform the check-in procedure above with and given two days to complete the move to their new room.

Once the prior room is cleared the student must go through the room check-out procedure to be cleared of the prior room.

Students who request a private room and are granted a private room will pay a private room rate and will not have the option to move back into a double room after the first two weeks of the semester.

Students who are assigned to a semi-private room without a roommate may be assigned one at any time. If you refuse to have or find a roommate or have issues after multiple roommate changes you may be charged for a private room. If there is absolutely no available roommate, you must leave one-half of the room empty. If a resident fails to do this and makes a space unavailable for a potential new roommate, that resident can/will be charged a private room rate.

Residents cannot request that roommate(s) and/or suitemate(s) be moved. Only you may request to relocate yourself.

CLOSINGS & CHECK-OUT

CLOSINGS

Students may remain on campus during holidays and other university closures during the semester.

Summer Break:

Residents must be out within 24 hours of the final day of final exams or date posted by the Housing and Residence Life. If a student is taking classes and remaining on campus during the Summer they must fill out a new contract for housing during the Summer Semester.

Abandoned/Confiscated Property:

Personal effects and other property of value that has been abandoned at the end of the semester or after a student as checked out and not claimed within 30 days shall be considered abandoned and may be retained by the University as its property or may be disposed of through sales, donations, or in such a manner as the University in its sole discretion may determine.

CHECK-OUT

Check-outs must be scheduled a minimum of 24 hours in advance. Prior to the scheduled check-out time, the room should be clean and returned to its original condition the suite must also be in good condition.

Suites/Facilities:

The last person to vacate the suite is not solely responsible for cleaning the suite and facilities. If a suite is left in an unsatisfactory condition, a cleaning fee will be applied to ALL members of the suite, not just the last resident to vacate.

Students should remove all possessions and property from the room before the residence staff member completes the check-out walkthrough. Failing to do so could delay your check-out. Just like check-in residents will accompany the staff during the walkthrough inspection of the room and suite to determine its condition. Resident will be asked to fill out a forwarding Address Form when they turn in their key.

Please note the following:

- ◆ If charged any damage, resident will sign and receive a copy of the check-out sheet to verify receipt.
- ◆ Check-out is complete when the room key is returned, along with the signed check-out sheet.
- ◆ Determination by the staff member of a room's condition may not be final. If upon later inspection by maintenance or the Hall Supervisor upon closing of the residence halls discover damages and it necessary to assess additional charges.

If you withdraw from the university at any point, you will have 48 hours to check out of the residence halls. You must follow the above mentioned check out process. Room charges will continue and fines may be applied until these requirements are met.

You are still responsible for all applicable damages and cleaning charges.

Each resident is responsible for carrying their key and university ID at all times. Tampering with or propping of the security doors or locking mechanisms is prohibited.

Lock-Outs:

If a resident gets locked out of their room or dorm, contact on duty Resident Assistant posted on the door of your hall. In the event that an RA is unreachable attempt to contact your Hall Supervisor. If you have exhausted all contacts, call NWOSU Campus Police for assistance. A ticket may be issued for missing key if a resident requests lock-out services frequently.

Missing Keys:

A missing room key, whether lost, stolen, or misplaced, should be reported to your Hall Supervisor immediately. A replacement key can be issued for a charge of $35.00. Failure to report the loss or theft of a key or loaning your key to an individual not on your key contract is a violation of housing regulations and may result in disciplinary action. Upon check-out you will return your assigned key, failure to do so will result in an automatic lock change and charge.

EMERGENCY EVACUATION

Emergency evacuation instructions are posted in your residence halls and under resources in your eRezLife portal. If you cannot find an emergency evacuation placard in your residence hall or on eRezLife contact your RA or Hall Supervisor for a replacement.

Whenever the fire alarm sounds, you and all other occupants in the residence halls must evacuate the building and proceed to the designated alternate refuge area, until you are notified it is safe to return to your building and room. As you leave your room, close your door. Students who do not vacate the building during the sounding of the alarm will be subject to disciplinary action. Meet at the emergency evacuation safe location designated by your RA or Staff.

- ◆ Move quickly and quietly to the exit for your area. In an orderly fashion, go to the designated meeting area for further instruction.
- ◆ Wear appropriate clothing and shoes. Carry a towel in case of smoke. Keep these items easily accessible for emergency use.
- ◆ Bring your keys and your ID

SAFETY & SECURITY

Fire Drills:

Fire Drills will be conducted once a semester. This is in compliance with state law, as well as for your own protection and safety. The purpose of the fire drill is to acquaint you with the exit routes from your buildings, as well as familiarize you with the sound of the fire alarm.

The fire drill allows the staff to test the alarm system to ensure it is properly functioning. The alarm signal is the same for a drill as for an actual emergency. During the drill, University officials will inspect all areas of the building, including resident's rooms.

Minimizing the Risk of Fire:

Students demonstrating any of the following behavior will be subject to disciplinary action and prosecution:

- ◆ Falsely reporting a fire, serious injury, or any other emergency
- ◆ Pulling the fire alarm when no fire is evident
- ◆ Setting fire or possessing or using flammable or highly combustible materials
- ◆ Tampering with or misusing (accidentally or intentionally) public area fire-safety equipment, including fire extinguishers, sprinklers, smoke detectors, exit signs, alarm pull stations, alarm horns, and hoses. Possessing, using, or manufacturing fireworks or explosives
- ◆ Using unauthorized appliances, candles, or incendiary devices
- ◆ Failing to leave a building a building at the sound of the alarm or when so directed by staff

Prohibited Materials to Help Minimize the Risk of Fire:

- ◆ Smoking in the residence halls is prohibited
- ◆ Incense burning is prohibited
- ◆ Open flame devices are prohibited
- ◆ Due to the extreme fire hazards, open flame devices, such as lanterns, candles, potpourri pots, or warmers using votives or canned fuel, are strictly prohibited.
- ◆ Wickless candles can be used

SEVERE WEATHER

Oklahoma weather can be severe and difficult to predict, it is important that you know which county you are in so that you can interpret forecasts and warnings provided by the media and other sources. The Northwestern Oklahoma State University Alva Campus is in Woods County. Students should be aware of their surroundings at all times by checking weather bulletins and listening for the City of Alva severe weather sirens. During periods of severe thunderstorms with the possibility of tornadoes, Northwestern personnel closely monitor weather information and will notify students and employees to take shelter if needed.. The City of Alva will activate its tornado sirens if a tornado threatens the community. Northwestern will use social media and the emergency text alert system to relay information.

NWOSU TORNADO PROCEDURES

THE UNIVERSITY HAS DESIGNATED THESE ALVA CAMPUS AREAS AS THE SAFEST PLACES TO TAKE SHELTER IF NECESSARY.

- Basement of Vinson Hall. Access is available by elevator or exterior door on the west side of the building.
- First floor of the Science Building in the east-west hallway.
- Basement of the Education Center. Access is available by elevator.
- Bottom floor (first) bathrooms of Jesse Dunn.
- South end of the main north-south hallway of the Health and Sports Science Education Building.
- First floor and interior hallway of all Residence Halls.

IF YOU ARE UNABLE TO SEEK SHELTER IN ANY OF THESE FACILITIES, THEN MOVE INDOORS AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE AND MOVE TO AN INTERIOR HALLWAY OR SMALL ROOM AT THE LOWEST LEVEL OF THE STRUCTURE, AWAY FROM WINDOWS, AVOID UPPER FLOORS, LARGE GLASSED AREAS, GYMNASIUMS AND AUDITORIUMS.

Tornado Warning:

This means a tornado has been sighted. In the event that the National Weather Service issues a Tornado Warning, and/or the City of Alva sirens are sounded students are advised to follow the emergency response procedures posted in your residence halls. Once the siren is sound, it is too late to seek protection at a remote location, everyone should seek protection immediately.

- ◆ GET INDOORS, GET DOWN, COVER UP
- ◆ Immediately move to the place identified in your building's tornado plan.
- ◆ If you are unclear where that is seek an interior space away from windows or glass doors, with as many walls between you and the storm, and the lowest floor possible in the building.

TACO WATCH | TACO WARNING

With severe weather in the forecast, it's a good time to go over the difference between a watch and a warning.

Watch 🟡 : We have the ingredients to make tacos.
Warning 🔴 : We are having tacos. Right now.

SAFETY & SECURITY

ACTIVE SHOOTER

NWOSU Utilizes the “Run, Hide, Fight”, method endorsed by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, for responding to an active shooter.

RUN:

- ◆ If possible and safe to do the best option is to run and get to a safe place away from the threat
- ◆ Take others with you if you can safely do so
- ◆ Have a plan for escape and be aware of where the exits are in a room or building.
- ◆ Warn others you see about entering the building where the shooter is.
- ◆ Once you make it to a safe place, call 911

HIDE:

- ◆ If you cannot run to safety, hide
- ◆ Close and lock doors, barricade them if possible
- ◆ Avoid hiding in clusters or groups
- ◆ Remain quiet and silence mobile devices
- ◆ Remain in place until instructed to move by law enforcement

FIGHT:

- ◆ If you cannot run or hide from an attacker, then fight only as a last resort.
- ◆ Be aggressive and commit to your actions
- ◆ If possible, use a group of people to overpower and disable the attacker
- ◆ Use improvised weapons to disable the attacker (i.e. chairs, books, fire extinguishers, etc.)

If the Shooting Incident is NOT in Your Building:

- ◆ Advise people in hallways of what is happening; try to get them to safety.
- ◆ If anyone refuses to enter an office or classroom, DO NOT ARGUE with them. Do not become a victim trying to get them to shelter.
- ◆ In an active shooter incident, the fire alarm going off does not necessarily mean to evacuate the building (the shooter may have activated the alarm to draw people into the open)
- ◆ STAY LOCKED FOWN until you receive the “all clear” message from law enforcement personnel

Other things to consider:

- ◆ BE PREPARED for contact with law enforcement upon exiting the building
- ◆ Keep hands in plain view
- ◆ REMEMBER: Active Shooter may attempt to exit the building, posing as a bystander
- ◆ Obey all commands given by law enforcement or other emergency personnel
- ◆ Only consider window escape on the ground floor, or if there is no other option

If in a Dorm Room:

- ◆ Lock doors, turn off lights, and silence cell phones
- ◆ Lay low! Remain calm and quiet
- ◆ DO NOT ANSWER THE DOOR, move away from all doors and windows.
- ◆ Wait for law enforcement to instruct you.

Bystanders:

- ◆ REPORT: Provide as much information as possible about the shooter such as clothing, physical description, weapon types, exact location, etc.
- ◆ LOCKDOWN: Remain where you are. Follow the instructions of designated faculty and staff members.
- ◆ ACTIVATE: The Campus Alert System will provide information via text if you are enrolled to get alerts.
- ◆ ACT: Assigned staff in each building will do their jobs, EVERYONE (including you) has a job to do

And everything will be all right.

Score, score, score, Rangers score,
And we will win just like before.

More, more, more, Rangers more,
You gotta ride and fight some more.

Ride, ride, ride, ride, ride
Fight, fight, fight, fight, fight,

Ride, ride, ride, Rangers ride,
And we will win this game tonight.

Fight, fight, fight, Rangers fight,

You gotta ride'em hard and ride'em far
And ride, ride, ride, and fight, fight, fight,
