Re: Personalized License Plate: 69PWNDU

Dear Leah,

The Tennessee Department of Revenue (the "Department") is writing this letter to notify you that the above-referenced personalized registration plate has been deemed offensive. Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 55-5-117(a)(1) (2012) and Tenn. Code Ann. § 55-4-210(d)(2) (2012), the Department may revoke a personalized registration plate that has been deemed offensive to good taste or decency. Therefore, the Department hereby revokes the above-referenced plate.

You may apply for a different personalized plate or request a regular, non-personalized plate to replace the revoked plate. The law requires you to immediately return the revoked plate. Tenn. Code Ann. § 55-5-119(a) (2012). You may either return the plate to your local county clerk's office or mail the plate to: Tennessee Department of Revenue, Vehicle Services Division, 500 Deaderick Street, Nashville, Tennessee 37242. You will be unable to renew your vehicle registration until this plate has been returned.

You may request a hearing to challenge this revocation under the Uniform Administrative Procedures Act by submitting a written request for a hearing within ten days of the date of this letter. The scope of the hearing is limited to whether the Department of Revenue, Vehicle Services Division, properly undertook this action based on the record and the law. Requests for an administrative hearing must be submitted in writing to the Tennessee Department of Revenue at the following address: Hearing Office, Andrew Jackson State Office Building 11th Floor, 500 Deaderick Street, Nashville, TN 37242. Alternatively, you may fax the request to (615) 741-6463 or email it to Karyn.Hill@tn.gov.

If you would like to reapply for a personalized plate, please contact Tammie Moyers at 615-532-1263. Please use the contact information at the bottom of this correspondence for any inquiries you have.
