

- Discussion of one's sexual activities.

Sexual Misconduct. Any form of sexual harassment or sexual misconduct including, but not limited to sexual assault, stalking, dating violence, intimate partner violence, domestic violence, and sexual exploitation. Please refer to JSU's Gender-Based and Sexual Misconduct policy for misconduct subject to that policy.

Smoking. The university is primarily smoke free. Smoke free zones include all university buildings and university housing, including the UREC Center.

Smoking (cigarettes, electronic cigarettes, vaping, cigars, hookahs, and pipes) in the residential area is only permitted in the areas for that purpose.

Smoking violations include but are not limited to:

- Smoking in unauthorized areas of campus as outlined above.
- The unauthorized sale of cigarettes and other tobacco products is prohibited anywhere on university property.

It should be noted that the presence of ashes, in or about residence rooms, halls and/or university buildings creates a rebuttable presumption that a student has violated the university's smoking policy.

Any student found responsible for violating this policy may be subject to a $300 fine, educational sanctions, and additional sanctions. Aggravating factors, such as the presence of a weapon, threats, or a fight, may result in a $300 fine and suspension from the University.

Students who are complicit may be subject to a $150 fine, housing probation, and/or additional disciplinary action from the University.

University Housing. Any student found responsible of smoking while living in university housing may be subject to deferred housing suspension, a $300 fine, and additional sanctions, including a room change without a refund. Upon a second offense, an individual may be suspended without a refund from university housing for a period of at least one (1) year and subject to an additional $300 fine.

If evidence of smoking is found in a common space, the rebuttable presumption will be that all student tenants are responsible for violating the smoking policy.

*Please note that students found responsible for smoking, drug use, and/or tampering with fire safety equipment may be subject to separate fines associated with each individual charge originating from the same documented incident.

Soliciting. No student or non-student entity may sell, solicit, survey, or publicize on university property without the prior written approval of the Dean of Students.

Stalking. A course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear. Stalking involves repeated and continued harassment, which causes the targeted person to feel emotional distress, including fear and apprehension. A stalker may know the targeted person, may be a past partner, or may be a stranger. Here are some examples of stalking behaviors:

- Pursuing or following.
- Non-consensual (unwanted) communications or contact- including face-to-face, telephone calls, voice messages, electronic messages, or unwanted gifts.
- Showing up at one's home or place of work unannounced or uninvited.
- Constantly calling and hanging up.
- Trespassing.

- Surveillance and other types of observation.
- Use social networking sites and technology to track you.

Cyberstalking: Using the Internet or other electronic means to harass someone.

Student Contractual Agreement. All students or student organizations planning to conduct programs on or off the university campus requiring a contractual agreement with non-university agencies, must obtain permission of the Dean of Students.

Student Posting. Posters, banners, or any other printed material may only be displayed on bulletin boards inside authorized university operated buildings or on authorized buildings. Trash receptacles are specifically unauthorized display areas.

Theft. Theft or attempted theft. Theft is defined as the wrongful taking and carrying away of the personal goods or property of another. Theft violations include but are not limited to:

- Attempted or actual theft of university property or services or property belonging to any member of the university community.
- Misappropriation of funds or receipt of funds through fraudulent or dishonest means.
- The unauthorized possession of university property or property belonging to any member of the university community.
- Unauthorized use or abuse of computer time and/or computer systems, information, passwords, or computerized data.
- Obtaining or attempting to obtain telephone service by any devious means, including but not limited to, unauthorized charging of another person for service, utilizing fraudulent mechanical means to gain service, and/or tampering with connections, facilities, or documents.
- Any student found responsible for violating this policy may be subject to a $100 fine, restitution of the fair market value of the stolen property, educational sanctions, and additional sanctions.

Threats or intimidation. All hostile, threatening, or intimidating behavior that, by its very nature, would be interpreted by a reasonable person to threaten or endanger the health, safety, or well-being of another.

Examples of such behavior may include, but are not limited to:

- Act(s) that alarms or seriously disrupts another person's ability to participate in any aspect of university life.
- Communicating verbally (either directly or indirectly) through another party, by telephone, or electronic mail, voice mail or any verbal, mechanical, electronic, or written communication in a manner that would restrict or deny any individual's access to educational resources, university activities, and university-related opportunities.

Trespassing. Wrongful and/or any unauthorized entry onto university property, including the residential halls, or the property of another. Students may not violate an administrative trespass issued by a university official or a criminal trespass order issued by UPD.

Unauthorized Use of JSU's Name. Non-recognized student organizations using the name of the university or attempting to use the name of the university without the express written consent of the university.

Unauthorized Activity. Non-recognized student organizations participating or attempting to participate in activities reserved for recognized student organizations. Student organizations that have been suspended or dismissed are considered organizations not recognized by the university.

Unauthorized Entry into Water Feature Areas

To ensure safety, and to protect JSU property from damage, tampering with or unauthorized entry into any campus area that has a water feature such as a fountain, pond, creek, or pool for any reason, during any season is prohibited. Individuals or groups entering the water in any way or placing any objects, substances,
