FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION POLICY

Area:	Student Affairs	Number:	n/a
Applies To:	Faculty, Staff, Students, Visitors	Issued:	August 16, 2018
Sources:	Board of Regents Policy Manual, Section 6.5	Revised:	June 27, 2022
		Reviewed:	October 21, 2022

I. Purpose

Georgia Southern University is committed to the freedoms of speech, expression, and assembly. Individuals have the right to assemble, to speak, and to attempt to attract the attention of others, and corresponding rights to hear the speech of others when they choose to listen, and to ignore the speech of others when they choose not to listen.

The rules articulated in this policy apply to all students, faculty, staff, and their registered organizations, as well as other persons and groups visiting Georgia Southern. Due to practical administrative realities, this policy does not apply to University agents and employees when they are acting in the course and scope of their agency or employment.

II. Definitions

Faculty or Staff – any individual employed by Georgia Southern University in a faculty or staff capacity.

Student – an individual who has been accepted for admission to the University and maintains a continuing relationship with the University by being enrolled in classes or being eligible to enroll in classes. Students also include but are not limited to online students, SOAR participants, and transient students taking courses on any Georgia Southern University campus.

Registered Student Organization – any number of students who have completed the requirements for being a registered Student Organization.

Student Group – any number of students who associate with each other for a common purpose but have not completed the requirements for being a registered Student Organization.

Designated Public Forum Area, Armstrong campus - two grass lawns bordered directly by the Sports Center Parking lot and the Student Union with sidewalks on three sides.

Designated Public Forum Area, Liberty Center – grassy area outside of the student commons.

Designated Public Forum Area, Statesboro campus – between the Russell Union and Williams Center.

III. Policy Statement

Students, faculty, staff, and their invited guests are free to express their views, individually or in organized groups, orally, by sign or exhibit, on any topic, in all parts of the campus. Persons not affiliated with the University are free to express their views orally, by sign or exhibit, on any topic in the Designated Public Forum Area. (These expressions are subject only to rules necessary to preserve equal rights of others and the functions of the University teaching, research, and other official functions of the University shall have priority in allocating the use of space on campus.)

Rules

These rules shall govern the conduct of all assemblies and demonstrations on University property or at University sponsored events.

1. Assemblies and demonstrations must be conducted in compliance with these rules and other applicable University policy and must not:
  - a. result in a breach of peace or violation of law;
  - b. negatively impact the security and safety of persons and/or property on campus;
  - c. interfere with the free and unimpeded flow of pedestrian and vehicular traffic on campus or the entry or exit into University buildings;
  - d. materially disrupt or interfere with the normal activities of the University;
  - e. damage or destroy University property.
2. No person conducting or participating in an assembly or demonstration on University property or at University sponsored events may advocate the deliberate violation of the law. For the purposes of this section, “advocacy” means preparing the group addressed for imminent action and seeing it to such action, as opposed to the abstract espousal of the moral propriety of a course of action.
3. Students, faculty, staff, and their registered student organizations may assemble and/or demonstrate anywhere on University grounds between the hours of 6:00 a.m. and 11:00 p.m., Monday through Sunday as long as the assembly and/or demonstration adheres to the provisions of Item 1.
4. All other persons and groups not affiliated with Georgia Southern University may assemble and demonstrate in the Designated Public Forum Area within the hours of operation of the facility, as long as the assembly and/or demonstration adheres to the provisions of Item 1 and a properly submitted Designated Public Forum Area Request Form has been approved.

IV. Exclusions

These are no exclusions or exceptions to the policy.

V. Procedures

Designated Public Forum Area Request Forms (links below) must be submitted at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance of the activity. This advance notice allows the University the opportunity to avoid simultaneous or competing assemblies/demonstrations and to arrange for adequate staffing. The online Designated Public Forum Area Request Form requires the applicant to provide a contact name, address, and phone number.
