Anonymous Reporting of Discrimination/Retaliation

If this is an emergency or you wish to report a crime in progress please call 911 or JMU Public Safety at 540-568-6911.

Use this online form to report an alleged instance of discrimination or harassment by a JMU student or employee on the basis of protected characteristics (such as age, disability, gender identity, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation or other protected status as defined in JMU's Equal Opportunity Policy).

If you personally have been subjected to harassment or discrimination on the basis of protected status by a JMU student or employee, you have multiple options including filing a report in order to initiate formal or informal procedures under JMU's Discrimination and Retaliation Policy \(Policy 1324\).

Reports or formal complaints alleging instances of sexual harassment, sexual assault, or other forms of sexual misconduct should be filed directly with the Title IX Office.

Reports of alleged discrimination or harassment based on protected status can also be made directly to OEO by

- calling the office at 540-568-6991
- emailing oeo@jmu.edu
- visiting the Office of Equal Opportunity, appointments recommended
- mailing the Office of Equal Opportunity,
