

UMBC RESIDENTIAL LIFE
RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES GUIDE
IMPORTANT REVISIONS, EFFECTIVE AUGUST 2024

UNABRIDGED

Living successfully together on campus leads to the development of personal integrity, civility and citizenship. This requires a commitment to observe the Community Living Principles and the Residential Life Rules, which show respect to the balance between your rights as a community member, and your responsibilities as a community member.

In addition to the guidelines in this unabridged guide, residential students are accountable for content included in the abridged version of this guide, their housing license, the Residential Life website, verbal or written instructions from staff members, University policies, Emergency Health and Safety Rules, Policies & Guidelines, and Federal, State and local laws. When revisions are made to this Guide, a public notification will be made to residential students. These guidelines are considered part of a residential student's Rights and Responsibilities. In addition, any violation of the Code of Student Conduct, University policies, state or federal law, local ordinances, etc. is prohibited.

Any rules in this guide are subject to change as public health and safety guidance from the University, CDC, USM and federal, state or local official s evolves. Residential student s will be advised of changes via email from the University or Residential Life.

ALCOHOL AND DRUGS

Alcohol

The Code of Student Conduct prohibits misconduct involving alcohol, including, but not limited to:

- Unauthorized or illegal use of any alcoholic beverages;
- Aiding or abetting an underage person in the purchase of alcoholic beverages;
- Disorderly conduct due all or in part to being under the influence of alcohol;
- The possession, consumption, or distribution of alcohol in any University facility or event, except as provided by the institution, in accordance with state and local law;
- Misrepresentation of age to obtain alcoholic beverages;
- Providing alcohol to underage persons;
- Possession of an open alcohol container in a public area;

Residential Life rules regarding Alcohol include:

- Residents who are not yet 21 may not possess, consume, sell, or serve alcohol in their assigned room or apartment,
- Residents who are not yet 21 may not host in their room or apartment anyone, regardless of age or relationship, who is possessing, consuming, selling, or serving alcohol
- Kegs and other multi-quart containers are not permitted in or around any residential facility
- Brewing and/or distilling alcohol is not permitted in or around any residential facility

ILLEGAL DRUGS & CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES

The Code of Student Conduct prohibits misconduct involving illegal drugs or controlled substances, including, but not limited to:

- Possession, use, distribution, sale, manufacture, or processing of illegal or unprescribed narcotics, illegal drugs, hallucinogens, and controlled substances;
- Possession, use, or sale of drug paraphernalia;
- Possession, use, sale, or distribution of legal drugs that are not prescribed to the recipient or person in possession or misuse of prescribed drugs or over the counter drugs.

While the Maryland General Assembly has passed laws allowing for the cultivation, sale by licensed businesses, possession, and use of certain amounts of cannabis, federal law (specifically, the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989) prohibits the possession, use, or distribution of illicit drugs by students, employees, or their guests on its property. UMBC is required to enforce a policy prohibiting the possession, use or distribution of all forms of cannabis--including medical cannabis--as a condition of receiving federal money, such as financial aid funds. Possession, use, or distribution of cannabis in university housing, on university property, and at UMBC-sponsored off-campus events violates Rule 4 of the UMBC Code of Student Conduct and violates drug and alcohol-free workplace policies. Violation of these policies may subject the student or employee to disciplinary action.

Identification cards and stickers are provided to residents as a mechanism of establishing that a student has a legitimate purpose on campus or within a specific community, therefore, Residential Rules require:

- Resident students entering a building with a staffed community service desk must show, provide, or furnish their current, valid UMBC ID as instructed by building staff;
- When entering their assigned building, if a resident student does not have their ID, they must wait at the desk until the desk staff is able to verify their identity.

COMPLIANCE

To maintain the orderly and safe operation of our residential communities, Residential Life Rules and The Code of Student Conduct direct all students to comply with all University policies, protocol, and rules, as well as the Residential Life and Walker Avenue Apartment's License Agreements. Additionally, students are required to comply with all reasonable requests of University officials, including all levels of Residential Life staff carrying out their job responsibilities

While compliance with University policies, protocols and rules is required at all times, compliance during emergencies, including weather emergencies and/or public health emergencies is especially noteworthy due to the evolving nature of these situations which requires vigilance, responsiveness, and attention to changing expectations and directives delivered through University communications or by University staff.
