Date of Incident: October 17, 2012 Time of Incident: 2:26 PM Location of Incident: E-mail correspondence

Brief Description of Incident: It is alleged that on October 17, 2012, Alexander Myers e-mailed the head hockey coaches of Canisius College and Cornell University and the coach of Cortland Club Hockey. In these e-mails, Mr. Myers stated, "I work for the Office of Public Affairs at SUNY Oswego". He further stated, "I am currently writing a profile on Oswego State Hockey head coach...hoping to get a rival coaches view on Mr. Gosek". Mr. Myers inquired about interactions between these three coaches and Oswego's hockey head coach. At the end of his e-mail, Mr. Myers encouraged all three coaches to "be as forthcoming as you like, what you say about [The Oswego Coach] does not have to be positive." The head hockey coach of Cornell University, in his reply informed Mr. Myers, "Your last line saying that your comments don't need to be positive is offensive." There is no record of this assignment or task from the Office of Public Affairs at SUNY Oswego.

The above statements are true to the best of my knowledge, and I understand that intentional misrepresentation of facts may result in disciplinary action. By signing this form, I give consent to release all relevant information pertaining to this incident.
